All venues will initially be set up as a 6 lane meet. It may be lesser or more, depending on the number of entries received.

Half an hour break in between sessions for sanitizing, no warmups, only static.

Hopefully, the restrictions will lift for us to host a proper QUALIFYING MEET at the end of February. If not, we will revert to this format.

1. Clubs must inform me via email by 16h00 tomorrow at which of the 3 available venues they would like to compete.
2. As well as on which day, either Saturday or Sunday.
3. Once confirmed, I will forward the events zip file accordingly.
4. All swimmers, officials & coaches that will be entering the venues, MUST complete the link provided below by no later than 9AM on the 01st of February 2021.
5. If your name is not on this list, you will not be granted access to the venue.
 - a. CTA LONG DISTANCE SOLIDARITY MEET - <https://forms.gle/A2YxVEo19sTEfABaA>
 - b. CTA L2+ SOLIDARITY MEET - <https://forms.gle/ducucppdDQM2xBBy9>
 - c. CTA L1 SOLIDARITY MEET - <https://forms.gle/1vsRb2YVszYM5Voy9>
6. Parents, please understand that NO SPECTATORS are allowed.
7. By congregating outside of the venue and peering over walls or sitting in a crowd with the intention of viewing the gala you are creating a super-spreader crowd environment and thereby putting the continuance of the competition at risk.
8. Parents can watch their children if they sign up as an official for the sessions.
9. Please note that should a club not have judges as officials, they need to source their judges on their own from other clubs and pay a R150 service fee to said official.

Kind regards

TEAM CTA
